

The 'Papar' Project

Hebrides

Barbara E. Crawford and Ian Simpson

H1. Pabay/Pabaigh (Uig, Lewis)

Landscape and resources

Settlement History

Ecclesiastical History

Parish History

Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)

H2. Pabbay/Pabaigh (Harris)

Historical Descriptions

Topography and Settlement

Ecclesiastical Monuments

Other Archaeological Sites

Fieldwork 2005

Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)

H2. Appendix Pabaigh 2005: Soil Survey and Sampling

Introduction

Pabaigh

Methodology

Results

The field systems

The chapels and graveyard

Sampling and analysis

Trench 1

Pits 1 and 2

Conclusions

Context descriptions

H3. Pabbay/Pabaigh (Kilphedir, South Uist)

Landscape and resources

Settlement History

Possible monastic structures

Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)

H4. Pabbay/Pabaigh (Kilbarr, Barra/Barraigh)

Topography and Settlement

Ecclesiastical Monuments

Ecclesiastical History of the 'Bishop's Isles'

Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)

H5. Pabay (Strath, Skye)

Historical Descriptions

Ecclesiastical History

Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)

- H6. Bayble/Pabail (Ui, Stornoway, Lewis)
Topography and History
Historical Descriptions
Teampull Rubha Chirc - Chapel Site
Ecclesiastical Context
Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)
- H7. Paible/Paibeil (Taransay/Tarasaigh, Harris)
Topography and Settlement
Ecclesiastical Sites and Sculpture
Paibeil/Paible - Erosion and Archaeology
Preliminary Evaluation (BEC)
- H8. Paible/Paibeil (Kilmuir, North Uist)
Topography
Settlement
Place-Names and Ecclesiastical History
Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)
- H9. Papadil (Small Isles, Rùm)
Historical Descriptions
Place-names
Papadil
Ecclesiastical Sites and Carved Stones
Later Ecclesiastical History
Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)
- H10. Pabanish (Uig, Lewis)
Landscape and resources
Settlement History
Ecclesiastical History
Parish History
Preliminary Evaluation (ed.)

Consolidated Bibliography

Illustrations

- H1.1 Map of Pabay/Pabaigh,Uig, from Haswell-Smith (2004), with kind permission
- H1.2 Mackenzie's 1776 chart of Loch Roag (Map.Rol.a.3, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H1.3 View of the south end of Pabaigh Mòr from Bhaltos (Cathy Dagg)
- H1.4. OS First edition map (1854), showing Pabaigh Beag and the sound between the two islands (Ross-shire, Sheet XVII, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H1.5 Aerial photo of the Bhaltos and Cnip peninsula with Pabaigh Mòr lying to the north-east (Sortie 60688, Frame 205,taken 29 April 1988. © RCAHMS (All Scotland Survey Collection))
- H1.6 OS First edition map (1854) of Pabaigh Mòr (Ross-shire, Sheet XVII, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H1.7 Aerial view of the South end of Pabaigh Mòr from the north; Teampull Pheadair is visible in the foreground above the sandy beach (SC 1093045, taken 25 Sep 2004. Crown Copyright: RCAHMS)
-
- H2.1 Map of Pabbay/Pabaigh,Harris, from Haswell-Smith (2004), with kind permission
- H2.2 Distant view of Pabaigh, Harris, from above An t-Ob (Valentine Collection, JV-A7772[A] © St Andrew's University Library)
- H2.3 Map of the Sound of Harris, from Blaeu's Atlas, dated 1654 (WD3B/48, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H2.4 Huddart's map of Pabaigh, 1794, which appears to represent the extent of sand drift at this date (EU.6.M, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H2.5 Bald's map of Pabbay, Harris, dated 1804-5 (EMS.s.646, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H2.6 1857 Admiralty Chart, showing the southern half of Pabaigh (Chart 2642, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H2.7 Teampull Mhòire and graveyard from the south (J Hooper)
- H2.8 External view of south elevation of Teampull Mhòire (J Hooper)
- H2.9a External view of west gable (J Hooper)
- H2.9b Internal view of west gable. The late medieval cross can be seen in the foreground (J Hooper)
- H2.10 General view of Bailenacille. Teampull Mhòire is visible at the left hand edge of the photo, behind the shepherd's house. The sharp distinction between the improved ground of the sheep farm and the dunes behind is clear; Seana Chaisteal (see below) is the prominent knoll on the skyline (J Hooper)
- H2.11 The dun from the south west, with signs of cultivation extending almost to the summit of Beinn a' Chàrnain in the background (J Hooper)
- H2.12 Sketch profile of excavated locations at Bailenacille, showing dated contexts (Not to scale)
-
- H3.1 Aerial view looking south-east over Loch Boisdale/Baghasdail with the two Pabaigh islands in the foreground (SC 1009336, taken 24 April 2005. Crown Copyright: RCAHMS)
- H3.2 The southern part of South Uist, as depicted in Blaeu's Atlas, dated 1654 (WD3B/47, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H3.3 Bald's estate plan of South Uist, dated c. 1825 (EMS.s.582, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
- H3.4 Aerial view of Pabaigh, S.Uist (Sortie CPE/SCOT/UK 372, Frame 4354, taken 30 April 1948. Reproduced courtesy of RCAHMS (RAF Air Photographs))
- H3.5a and b Two views of the site of the possible monastic settlement (John Raven)

H4.1 Pabbay/Pabaigh, the Barra Isles, from Haswell-Smith (2004), with kind permission
H4.2 Map of the "Southern Isles" from Blaeu's Atlas, dated 1654 (WD3B/41, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H4.3 Aerial view of Pabaigh, Barra, showing the one sandy beach, sheltered, and with the settlement location just behind (Sortie 60487, Frame 070, taken 22 May 1987 © RCAHMS (All Scotland Survey Collection))
H4.4 Mackenzie's chart of Pabaigh, dated 1776 (EMS.s.654, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H4.5 Thomson's map of Pabaigh, dated 1820 (EMS.s.712(24c), courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H4.6 The graveyard mound from the south, photographed in 1895 (SC 409419 © RCAHMS. Copied from 'Wanderings with a camera 1882-1898', by Erskine Beveridge)
H4.7 The graveyard mound from the south in 1992 (Pat Foster)
H4.8 The Pictish symbol stone photographed in 1895 (SC 908651 © RCAHMS (Erskine Beveridge Collection))
H4.9 The Pictish symbol stone and cross-incised slabs (Fisher 2002, 106)
H4.10 Bronze pin, found on Pabaigh (Society of Antiquaries of Scotland 1900-1, 278)

H5.1 Map of Pabay, Skye, from Haswell-Smith (2004), with kind permission
H5.2 Pabay as shown on the Admiralty Chart of 1857 (Chart 2475, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H5.3 Mackenzie's chart of 1776 showing Pabay in relation to the sea-route through Kyleakin (Map.Rol.a.2, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H5.4 The Altar, as sketched by T. S. Muir in 1859 (Muir 1885, 38)
H5.5 Aerial view of Pabay, Skye; the chapel lies to the east of the burn which runs down to the southern shore of the island (OS/91/106, Frame 067, taken 6 July 1991. Crown Copyright: Ordnance Survey)

H6.1 Aerial view of Bayble/Pabail, extending as far west as Teampull Rubha Chirc (Sortie 60687, Frame 043, taken 27 June 1987. © RCAHMS (All Scotland Survey Collection))
H6.2 OS First edition map of Pabail, 1851 (Ross-shire, Sheet XVIII, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H6.3 The Eye peninsula from the map of Lewis and Harris, contained in Blaeu's Atlas of 1654 (WD3B/48, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H6.4 Mackenzie's 1776 chart of the Eye Peninsula (Map.Rol.a.3, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H6.5 Part of Chapman's map of Lewis, originally drawn in 1807, showing the township boundaries (EMS.s.543, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H6.6 Teampull Rubha Chirc from the north-east (Carol Knott)
H6.7 Plane table survey of Teampull Rubha Chirc by Lewis and Harris Archaeology Group, 2000, with kind permission

H7.1 Map of Taransay/Tarasaigh, from Haswell-Smith (2004), with kind permission
H7.2 Aerial view of Tarasaigh from the south-east with Paibeil in the foreground (SC 1004371, taken 25 April 2005. Crown Copyright: RCAHMS)
H7.3 Mackenzie's chart of 1776, the first to depict Tarasaigh in any detail (Map.Rol.a.3, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)
H7.4 The graveyard at Paibeil (Ian Simpson)
H7.5 The two cross-incised stones from Tarasaigh (Fisher 2002, 113)
H7.6 Part of Bald's estate plan, dated 1804-5 (EMS.s.646, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H7.7 Aerial view of Paibeil (SC 1004373, taken 25 April 2005. Crown Copyright: RCAHMS)

H8.1 Map of North Uist from Blaeu's Atlas, dated 1654 (WD3B/47, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H8.2 Aerial view of Paibeil showing Loch Paibeil at low tide (Sortie 60487, Frame 070, taken 22 May 1987 © RCAHMS (All Scotland Survey Collection))

H8.3 The area around Paibeil in Thomson's 1820 map of North Uist (EMS.s.712(24c), courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H8.4 Aerial view of Paibeil, looking south to Caolas Paibeil (SC 1093046, taken 24 April 2005. Crown Copyright: RCAHMS)

H8.5 Admiralty Chart, 1865, showing township boundaries (Chart 2805, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H9.1 Map of Rùm, from Haswell-Smith (2004), with kind permission

H9.2 Admiralty Chart, 1852-63, showing relationship of Papadil to Harris and Dìbidil (Chart 2507, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H9.3 View of south-east side of Rùm, from Laig, Eigg (J Hooper)

H9.4 Langland's map of Rùm, dated 1801 (EMS.s.326, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H9.5 Harris, looking south towards Papadil (J Hooper)

H9.6 Aerial view of Papadil (Sortie Meridian 48/67, Frame 035, taken 10 June 1967. © RCAHMS (Meridian Airmaps))

H9.7 Papadil from the north-east. The pinnacle can be seen in the left background. In the centre, in front of the wall is the possible church site (SC 1093048, dated 1983. Crown Copyright: RCAHMS)

H9.8 Kilmory, from the south-west, with the graveyard in the foreground (J Hooper)

H9.9 Bagh na h-Uamha, from the mouth of the cave (J Hooper)

H10.1 Map of Little Bernera, from Haswell-Smith (2004), with kind permission

H10.2 Mackenzie's 1776 chart of Lewis (Map.Rol.a.3, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H10.3 Aerial view of Beàrnaraigh Beag (top of photograph) (Sortie 60688, Frame 121, taken 29 April 1988. © RCAHMS (All Scotland Survey Collection))

H10.4 OS First edition map (1854) of Beàrnaraigh Beag (Ross-shire, Sheet XVII, courtesy of The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland)

H10.5 Aerial view of Teampull Beàrnaraigh Beag and Pabanish from the south-east. The graveyard lies to the left of the beach in the centre of the photograph (SC 1093049, taken 25 Sep 2005. Crown Copyright: RCAHMS)

Agricultural Land Assessment

Figure 1: The Papar islands, and related place names.

Figure 2: Teampull Mhoire, Pabbay, Sound of Harris.

Figure 3: Teampull Mhoire, Pabbay, Sound of Harris.

Figure 4: St. Keith's Chapel, Taransay.